MAREN PATTERSON

EXPERIENCE

MULTIMEDIA MOBILE E-LEARNING SPECIALIST, DSI Systems inc. (AT&T) 2019 - PRESENT
"I finally had some time to run through the content that has been loaded and that you had worked on. I wanted to reach out and tell you that it looks great!" (Brad Baumann, Engineer Designer)

- Development of AT&T Mobile Application + Educational/Instructional Animation Creation and Editing
- Educational/Instructional Video Production and Audio Production
- Online Course Development, CMS Course layout Design and Reviewer

INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGNER / DIGITAL CONTENT DEV., Harding University 2018 - 2019
"Because of his versatility in graphic and web design, video editing and programming, he would be an asset to any company that seeks his skill set. These skill sets were used on various projects in The Center for Learning with Technology, and they were well done." (Naomi Valentine, Senior Instructional Designer)

- Quality Matters Certified Course Reviewer/Peer Reviewer
- Video/Audio/Website Design/ Graphic Design/ 3D Visualization in Unreal Engine 4
- Studio Engineer Manager/Educational digital content developer

WEBSITE DEVELOPER / DIGITAL CONTENT DEVELOPER, Escape Chambers 2016 - 2018
"I have been repeatedly blown away by the projects he puts together… Besides being incredibly professional, polite, and an overall great human being to work with, he has a unique sense of creativity and continues to knock it out of the park when we task him with projects. " (Ben Holt, Marketing Director)

- After redesigning the company's core website to enhance user experience, I developed, published, and managed 9 websites for the company. (WordPress, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap)
- Additionally I designed associated graphics for marketing projects and games, produced and edited movie style video trailers for each of their games offered, with included voice over work, and some basic product photography.
- Lastly I was able to provide entry level virtual reality game world development as the company pursued virtual reality game offering.
